From Pastor Stacy's Desk

Dear Siblings in Christ,

I have been reflecting on the story in Luke 25, some bibles title as The Walk to Emmaus. There are some pretty important things going on in this story. Many of us know the story of the two disciples who were walking on the road intently discussing what had happened in the last few days when a man approaches them and asks what they are talking about.

The first important thing is the disciples did not recognize their Lord walking alongside them, intently listening to their interpretation of what had happened in Jerusalem. The next important revelation in the road to Emmaus was the acknowledgement of the women who had shared what they witnessed at the tomb the following morning Jesus' crucifixion. And most importantly in this story is the recognizing of Jesus in the sharing of the meal.

Now it is pretty obvious why I would wonder why the disciples did not recognize Jesus. My guess is some of us have said to ourselves, "we would have recognized Jesus!", right? But we all wonder how these two could not have missed Jesus, especially as he talked with them. Wouldn't you have recognized someone you had spent time learning from and watching him perform miracles?

Next the acknowledgement of the women who had come back to share what they had experienced at the empty tomb Easter morning, is extraordinary! In a culture that did not recognize women as having a voice, for the most part, in a household, it is remarkable these two men shared this story with another man. Anyone, other than Jesus, would have, likely, laughed all the way to Emmaus about women proclaiming a risen Lord.

Finally, the meal... although it is quite disappointing to read the two men did not recognize Jesus on such a long walk, it is encouraging they recognized him in the sharing of a meal. In this experience I wonder what it was that they recognized, the meal or the Word? According to Martin Luther, in the Large Catechism, The Sacrament of the Altar "is the true body and blood of the Lord Christ, in and under the bread and wine, which we Christians are commanded by Christ's word to eat and drink.... it is bread and wine set within God's Word and bound to it."¹ This is a miracle in and of itself.

Do you recognize Jesus when you gather at the table? Do you hear God's Words to you, given and shed for you? This meal is to "strengthen our conscience"² and "that our faith may be refreshed and strengthened."³ Although the disciples were blind to Jesus on the road, they recognized God's Word to them in the meal and were able to see Jesus. The world is a drain on our minds, our body's and our faith. By the time we make it to another Sunday worship we need to be refreshed and strengthened in all ways. When we confess our sins to God and one another it is a renewal of our relationships. When we sing, we offer praise to the one who strengthens us. When we pray, we strength our relationship with our Father. When we humbly come to the Lord's table, we are both refreshed and nourished in the Word of God and in the body and blood of God's Son.

As you look back on your Lenten journey, I pray it was a time of intentional renewal of your relationship with God. As you come to the table for Easter may you give thanks with shouts of acclamation and be refreshed and strengthened in the true bread and wine from heaven.

Easter Blessings,

Pr. Stacy

Dear Northern Great Lakes Synod,

Northern Great Lakes Synod

Marquette, Michigan

Equipping the Saints for Ministry

My father was a historian. Often at the dinner table, he would alert us to some historical milestone of the day. He would announce with enthusiasm, “Five hundred years ago today...” such and such happened. Or “It’s been exactly ten years and four days since...” Sometimes we would have to guess what obscure anniversary was being named, which was always impossible, unless it was our birthday.

So prepare yourself as now I am going to inflict the same reverie on you. It has been a year, one whole year, since the pandemic became real to our corner of the world. On March 15, 2020, Pastor Jim Duehring was at St. Paul’s in Ironwood celebrating the installation of their new pastor, the Rev. Doug Norquist. And on that same day, practically that same hour, I was at Salem and Zion, Ironwood, celebrating the installation of their new pastor, the Rev. Nicole Hanson-Lynn. After that Sunday, practically overnight, pastors were transformed into video producers. We learned about FM transmitters, Zoom, making masks, and the status quo became anything but quo.

In this past year, what have we learned? What have we lost? What have we gained? God has been at work in this pandemic. I think of the scripture readings that have to do with pruning, with being refined like silver, with being molded like clay in the hands of the potter. I think of God’s promise for new life, for renewal, to be active in us as the Spirit pushes and pulls us as the body of Christ, the Church, into a God-pleasing shape.

No doubt, we have felt the points of pressure, even pain. We can look back over this past year, which has felt much longer than 12 months, and compare then to now. We can look back and take note that this will be our second pandemic Easter, that we will still observe safety protocols and be silent of trumpets. We still have a way to go before we can declare the pandemic is over. But at this one year mark, we can look back and see what we have gained.

We have learned how to be more connected in new ways. Pastors and leaders slogged through decision fatigue to creatively meet the new challenges. Congregation Councils did the hard work of figuring out safety protocols and what metrics to apply to future decisions of in-person worship. I saw congregations equipping parents to teach the faith with take-home packets and at-home worship. I saw online meetings, Zoom coffee hour, email devotions, and hard copy sermons sent through the mail.

You all have been and continue to be AMAZING!!! What a year! What a difficult, trying, tiring, creative, faith deepening, discipleship challenging, grief provoking year of loss and gain. I know I am not the only one who has felt weary, impatient, and sad. But neither am I the only one who has found new appreciation for what makes us Church, the power of community, and how Christ becomes more palpable when we are together.

Looking at both the positives and negatives of this pandemic allows us to look forward with better questions about what our next steps will be. There is newness emerging and a hunger to dive deeply into the things we took for granted before. As we gather for worship again, as we reapply ourselves to ministries that have been neglected, as we are newly aware of what matters to us about the community of faith, I urge that we continue in prayerful discernment about future directions. I do not believe it is wise to rush back to fill every corner with the way we did things “before.”

I hope, in this year of HOPE, that the same care and consideration that we invested in designing safety protocols will be applied as we consider what to carry forward and what to leave behind, and what to begin from scratch. I know that God is creating something new, and we are only just beginning to perceive it.

May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Yours in Christ,

Bishop Katherine Finegan
